STEADFAST MEN

Lesson 05 · Pick Up the Weight

Week 5. Pick up the weight

Participant worksheet

Steadfast Men
The way of Godly Men
Wes Hart

Read this week: Chapter 5, Pick up the weight.

One job: Write one line that starts with That is mine and ends at the period. No but.

The line

A steadfast man stops waiting, picks up the weight, goes first, and works for God's pay, not the room's.

Write it once. This week is the second mark.

> Galatians 6:5 NIV
> for each one should carry their own load.

Name it

One line: That is mine. Period. No silent but.

Do this week

One non-money provision a day. If single, one thing you have been letting someone else carry.

The thing I will provide / carry every day:

Say the five out loud once (check):

- [ ] My life
- [ ] My house
- [ ] My work
- [ ] My people
- [ ] What I did wrong

Tell a brother

Tell him your That is mine sentence and what you did about it. Ask him to check on it next week.

I told (name): _____ on (day): _____

He will ask: _____

Alone: still tell one man. Same day.

Carry this

Provision that costs your presence is not provision. It is a very expensive way to disappear.

Write that once.

Before the room

Read this week: Chapter 5, Pick up the weight.

Aim: Pick up the weight. The weight that is yours does not move until you put a hand on it.

One job: Write one line that starts with That is mine and ends at the period. No but.

Pitfall: Do not preach last week's wait. Do not preach going first or God's pay. Do not dump a second verse as a second sermon. Do not let him hide in other men's crises. One sentence. One period. One hand.

Time: about an hour. Church, small group, or a man alone.

A steadfast man stops waiting, picks up the weight, goes first, and works for God's pay, not the room's.

Say it. Do not unpack it. Tonight is the second mark.

> Galatians 6:5 NIV
> for each one should carry their own load.

Open (2-3 min)

He stood up last week. Standing is not carrying. A corner post takes the strain of the whole run. Nobody drives past a fence and admires the corners. They only notice when one leans.

Say the four. Sit down.

Hit

You are putting a name on a load.

Blame is a man setting down weight that is his and pointing at whoever is standing closest. Fairness is how a boy thinks. A man takes responsibility for what is in front of him, not only for what he caused.

Paul says each one should carry their own load. A load is a man's own pack. Carry it without complaint. Presence is part of provision, not a luxury he earns after.

Say That is mine. Stop at the period. No silent but. Own the outcome, not just the effort. Carry your load before you reach for a crushing burden. When it is too heavy, ask for help. That is not setting the weight down.

Point at Chapter 5. Then shut up. Do not start week 6.

Table

Three. Wait.

1. Can you say That is mine about one weight without a but after it?
2. Where have you been providing everything for the house except yourself?
3. What is one non-money provision you will do every day this week?

Young: before you carry for anybody else, carry yourself. Single: the life is already yours. Married: the state of the marriage is yours; she needs you in the room. Hurt: go slow; some loads were never his; this page is the one that still is. Older: ask to be let back in; start small. The job going well: a scoreboard at work is not the table at 6:30.

Run the closer

One weight. Not ten.

Name it. One line: That is mine. Period. Say it out loud tonight. If it still has a silent but, cross the but out before he sleeps.

Do this week. One non-money provision a day. If single, one thing you have been letting someone else carry. Say the five out loud once: my life, my house, my work, my people, what I did wrong.

Tell a brother. Tell him your That is mine sentence and what you did about it. Ask him to check on it next week.

Carry this. Provision that costs your presence is not provision. It is a very expensive way to disappear.

If he only confesses the pile, he will get a nod and keep walking around it. Get the period and the hand on the page.

Solo note

Read Chapter 5. Write That is mine. Do the provision the same day. Tell one man both.

Do not open week 6 until Dean says.
