STEADFAST MEN

Lesson 14 · How That Looks on a Man

Week 14. How that looks on a man

Participant worksheet

Read this week: Chapter 16, How that looks on a man.

One job: Name which shape is yours, and one place it showed this week.

The line

A steadfast man stops waiting, picks up the weight, goes first, and works for God's pay, not the room's.

Write it once.

> Proverbs 14:12 NIV
> There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death.

Name it

Which shape is yours, and one place it showed this week. Drawer, fortress, scoreboard, podium, throne, contempt, or recliner. One sentence, out loud, tonight.

Do this week

Run the wife test or the brother test. Ask where they see you hiding and where you are harsh. Listen to the whole answer without defending yourself. Then thank them.

I asked (name): _____ on (day): _____

I thanked them: _____

Tell a brother

Tell him about your drawer, even if it is only a habit of hiding your real thoughts, and give him permission to say you are the man when he sees it.

I told (name): _____ on (day): _____

He has permission: _____

Alone: still tell one man. Same week.

Carry this

Competence is not righteousness. A man can run a whole kingdom while he rots. Open the drawer before someone else does.

Write it once.

Before the room

Read this week: Chapter 16, How that looks on a man.

Aim: The inside has a shape. Competence is not righteousness. Open the drawer before someone else does.

One job: Name which shape is yours, and one place it showed this week.

Pitfall: Do not reprint last week's sentence as the whole hour. Do not dump a missing vision. Do not preview two ways of being a man. Do not teach a marriage class. Soft match the shapes. Do not dump the whole lecture. Kind: the pattern is not proof the wound was fake.

Time: about an hour. Church, small group, or a man alone.

A steadfast man stops waiting, picks up the weight, goes first, and works for God's pay, not the room's.

Say it. Do not unpack it. Tonight is how the week already told on him.

> Proverbs 14:12 NIV
> There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death.

Open (2-3 min)

He can look faithful from the parking lot. He can run a crew and still rot under a clean surface. Competence is not righteousness. The week already reported which shape he lived.

Say the four. Sit down.

Hit

You are not diagnosing a theory. You are reading a week he already lived.

Appears. That is the trap. Drawer, fortress, scoreboard, podium, throne, contempt, recliner. A way that looks right at 3 p.m. and still leads somewhere dead. A man can run a whole kingdom while he rots. Open the drawer before someone else does.

He can feel more than one. Pick the one that spent the most hours. Naming all seven as a dodge is still a dodge. Hurt can sit in a man and still not write every skipped night. Kind is not letting the shape keep the week.

Point at Chapter 16. Then shut up.

Table

Three. One shape.

1. Which shape is yours: drawer, fortress, scoreboard, podium, throne, contempt, or recliner?
2. Where did it show this week?
3. Who will you ask the wife test or brother test, and will you thank them after?

Young: the shape can start before a lease. Single: kill the drawer before it holds a second life. Married: she already knows; listen without defending. Hurt: the shape is not proof the wound was a story. Older: fortress can dress as wisdom. The job going well: early closes can coexist with a rotting drawer.

Run the closer

One shape. One test. One drawer.

Name it. Which shape is yours, and one place it showed this week. Drawer, fortress, scoreboard, podium, throne, contempt, or recliner. One sentence, out loud, tonight.

Do this week. Run the wife test or the brother test. Ask where they see you hiding and where you are harsh. Listen to the whole answer without defending yourself. Then thank them.

Tell a brother. Tell him about your drawer, even if it is only a habit of hiding your real thoughts, and give him permission to say you are the man when he sees it.

Carry this. Competence is not righteousness. A man can run a whole kingdom while he rots. Open the drawer before someone else does.

If he only hears a theory, he stays unaccused. Get the shape and the test on the page.

Solo note

Read Chapter 16. Name the shape. Run the test the same week. Tell one man about the drawer. You do not have to retire the whole pattern by Friday. You have to stop calling competence a clean heart.

Do not open week 15.
